Re: USA v. Julio Taveras Abreu
21-mj-11434

Dear Judge McCarthy:

On December 7, 2021 Mr. Julio Abreu appeared before you and I was assigned to represent him on the pending charge of conspiracy to distribute narcotics pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 846(B)(1)(a). You granted my application for his pretrial release, and he is currently under strict pretrial supervision with home detention monitoring. During our last court appearance, I brought to your attention that there is currently a Pennsylvania criminal case against Mr. Abreu where he asserts he is not the person who was responsible for using a credit card and charging a weekend vacation in the Poconos. As the enclosed correspondence reflects, he has been Ordered to appear in the county courthouse of Monroe County, Stroudsburg, PA on January 19, 2022 at 1:30 p.m. for a case conference and then again on January 28, 2022 if the case is not resolved. Mr. Abreu has proof that he was not in the country at the time the credit card was being used in Pennsylvania.

I am writing to you to request that you authorize that he may travel outside of the Southern District of New York to his Pennsylvania court appearance and conference with his assigned attorney on January 19, 2022 returning the same day. I have spoken to pretrial services, and they have no objection to this request. I ask that this application be approved.

Very truly yours,

Stephen R. Lewis
